Forgotten Classics

A showstopping selection of works that deserve to be heard next to those by the well known greats! This recital program features works from the Americas, Europe, and Asia.

Constantino Gaito, Ethel Smyth, Franz Liszt, Frederic Chopin, Fazil Say, Toru Takemitsu

Spanish/French Cuisine

Perhaps the most imitated national styles, composers from France and Spain brought unique flavor to their music that didn't exist elsewhere in Europe. These are passionate and fragrant works that awaken our emotions.

Joaquin Nin, Francis Poulenc, Gabriel Faure, Joaquin Rodrigo, Nadia Boulanger, Claude Debussy, Isaac Albeniz

Britain and America

The musical connection between America and Britain runs very deep and this program sheds light on how interconnected these artistic communities have remained up to the present time.

Frank Bridge, Leonard Bernstein, Lukas Foss, Ethel Smyth, Joan Tower, Benjamin Britten

Blazing Trails

Masterworks by composers from diverse backgrounds whose artistry paved the way to success for future generations.

George Walker, Joan Tower, Igor Stravinsky, Andrea Casarrubios, Clara Schumann

Russian Ethos

Some of the most beautiful, most heartfelt repertoire written in the 20th Century came from the Soviet composers who lived through tumultuous times. The inspiration that emerged from their experiences has been left to us in these extraordinary works.

Dmitri Shostakovich, Sergei Prokofiev, Igor Stravinsky, Mieczyslaw Weinberg

Beethoven and his Legacy

Beethoven's cast a long shadow through time but his Sonatas opened the door for creative minds in future generations to make the genre their own.

Lera Auerbach, George Walker, Ludwig van Beethoven, Franz Schubert

South American Tour

Among the most significant and neglected works come to us from south of our border. These composers offer breathtaking glimpses into a musical tradition right under our noses!

Gabriela Lena Frank, Constantino Gaito, Manuel Ponce, Heitor Villa-Lobos, Juan Pablo Contreras
